

Cancun, Mexico will be the site for Independent Marketing Group's 2006 Marketing Conference scheduled for May 10-14, 2006. The top 100 producers who qualify for the Conference, along with their designated guests, will enjoy four nights and days at the Fiesta Americana Grand Coral Beach Cancun.

An All-Suite luxury resort, attendees will be delighted with their ocean-front suites with marble floors, sunken living areas, private balconies overlooking the Caribbean Sea and all the amenities of a Five-Diamond resort. The resort also offers a beautiful beach, multilevel pool complex, superior dining outlets, five different bars and lounges, tennis, Health Club & Spa, golf, marina activities and much more.

Mexico's most coveted destination, Cancun provides a wealth of sightseeing, activities and entertainment...don't miss this opportunity to experience Cancun as a guest of the Independent Marketing Group and American National Insurance Company.

American National has a diverse portfolio of fixed products (whole life, universal life, annuity and term) that will count toward qualification for the Conference. For information about our products, contact our Field Support Center at 1-888-501-4043, option 1.

Look for additional information about this exciting conference in future issues of our newsletter, The Independent Voice (published monthly and available at our Web site, www.imo.anicoweb.com).

See you in Cancun!